SITKA SEAFOOD FESTIVAL
Celebrating Alaska’s wild seafood

Be a part of a culinary festival to celebrate the best local food source on the planet! The festival will take place August 6-7, 2010 at the Centennial Building and surrounding areas. We are currently looking for volunteers, donations, and participants. We welcome anyone who wants to help promote and celebrate one of our greatest resources through entertainment, education and culinary arts. Here is a tentative schedule of events:

FRIDAY, AUG. 6TH:

- Opening Banquet Dinner: formal atmosphere with 7 different local chefs collaborating together, each showcasing a separate course.
- Live music during dinner

SAT., AUG 7TH:

- Parade
- Vendors start around 11am (includes food, educational booths, entertainment booths, beer garden, and anyone interested in showcasing seafood or maritime-related items)
- Stage with live acts starting around noon: includes bands, cooking demos, and NANDA (an acrobatic martial-arts entertainment group)
- Contests start around 1pm: includes kids contests-crab races, etc as well as fish tossing contests, eating contests, and possibly chowder contest
- Headliner band is Trampled By Turtles, an amazing bluegrass band from Minnesota. The music and dance starts around 7pm in the Centennial building. Looking into Local bands opening.
- Other activities include an Allen Marine Cruise to Medeviji Hatchery, Golf Tournament, and possible Art Show
