The Search for a Signature Sitka Seafood-Dish

Putting Sitka’s Chefs to the Test

12 noon—2pm, August 11, 2012
Harrigan Centennial Hall

In effort to support and promote the position of Alaska’s Wild Seafood’s in the global marketplace, the Sitka Seafood Festival organizers and the Sitka Convention & Visitors Bureau have partnered to help inspire the creation of a Signature Food for Sitka.

Both Professional and Amateur Chefs are encouraged to enter.

It is our sincere hope that this contest inspires locals to create an exciting seafood entre that would become synonymous with Sitka. We also hope that the majority, if not all, local restaurants will offer their own version of the winning entry and eventually adopted by restaurants nationwide.

Guidelines:

Main Ingredient—Any Locally Available Wild Alaskan Seafood.
Salmon, Halibut, Ling Cod, Black Cod, Crab, Shrimp, Scallops, Snapper etc.

- Quantity-Minimum of 12 servings of approximately 2 ounces. The more the merrier!!
- Versatile Recipe-Economical version, Mid-Priced version and of course Gourmet.
- Entries must be pre-made / ready to serve, no kitchen access will be available on-site.
- Recipe’s for entries must be provided and will become public domain.
- Deadline to Enter is August 1st, 2012
- Set-up available at 11:00am and judging will begin at Noon.

Judging: A anonymous panel of judges will determine the winner based on various criteria.

- Taste
- Recipe Flexibility
- Potential retail price
- Marketability
- Availability
- Etc.

Although a winning entry will be determined, without consensus, it may not become Sitka’s signature dish.

The winning entry will receive a cash prize, a certificate acknowledging their accomplishment, local promotion and, of course, Bragging Rights to Sitka’s Signature Dish. The winner will be announced during the Sitka Seafood Festival’s evening events at the Alaska Arts SE Campus at SJ.

There is No Cost to Enter

Entry Forms can be picked up at Old Harbor Books or emailed to you.
